The Issue of Freedom.

A recent editorial in Liberty said: "Our pioneer ancestors were determined to be free men. They wanted the privilege of guiding their own destiny, of forming their own government, of living their own lives in accordance with the dictates of their conscience and intelligence. And they valued their citizenship, the Constitutional rights delegated to them. As citizens they were far better informed about their government than we are today. We were born into it. It has come to us through inheritance. And like shiftless sons of rich men, having made no sacrifices for our liberties, we value them lightly. And perhaps much of the freedom we now enjoy may be lost before we awaken to the dangers that now confront us."

Too many Americans pay no attention to government. They accept the proposal and passage of laws that are opposed to both the letter and spirit of the Constitution without complaint. They watch the growth of political bureaucracy, and the centralization of political power, without the slightest regard as to

Week End Fete Will Memorialize Forest Theatre

By HAL GARROTT

This week-end marks the 25th anniversary of the Forest theater, Carmel's most beloved institution and California's first informal outdoor theater.

Elaborate preparations are being made for a week of festivities, street pageants, and window decorations, to be climaxed Friday and Saturday by the performance of Yellow Jacket, the delightful Anglo-Chinese drama. The Forest theater produced this play with great success in 1920 with Fred Bechdoit playing the leading role, the "property man." Mr. Bechdoit will take the same role in the present production.

A notable cast has been selected under the direction of Edward Kuster, with William Gaskin acting as art director. The players include such well known popular favorites as Sybil Leonard, Lloyd Weer, Digby Smith, Jadwiga Noskowiak, Ross Miller, Helen Chapman, Lorraine Plank, Ross Cowen, Scott Douglas, Charles Killian, Martin Vaguedes-Waldo, Eugene Watson, Geraldine Fitzgerald, Peggy Clough, Jessie and Ellen Brown, Louise Symonton, Joyce Whitcomb, Cora Klagstone, Nana Wells, Lloyd Brouno and others.

The audience promises to be as picturesque as the actors. Many will come in fancy dress, or wearing some article of Chinese clothing. The women, of course, will wear the pants, the men, the skirts. A delegation from San Francisco's Chinatown is expected to attend in full regalia. Carmel's entrancing outdoor theater will be as colorful as a Chinese tea garden. Those wearing an article of Chinese dress will be served with tea between the acts.

A number who were present at the founding of the Forest theater 25 years ago will take part in the festivities. The long roll of local and national celebrities identified with the famous playhouse at one time or another include: Perry Newberry, Herbert Heron, Van Wyck Brooks, Mary Austin, Garnet Holme, John Hilliard, James Hopper, Henry Cowell, Winter Watts, Thomas Vincent Cator Cornells, Botke, Dan Tothorot, Jo Mora, George Marion, Harry Leon Wilson, Sidney Coe Howard, Daisy Bostick, Susan Porter, Morris Ankrum, Byron Foulger.

of the house" who doesn't wear the pants, and Florence Rust as May Madison Preble, his vivacious spouse, who is deeply concerned over the impropriety of her maiden sister, were both so good that they shared equally in the favor of the audience. Evert Sholund as Doctor Spendler handled his stuff just like a modern doctor and Nurse Martin came right up to the scratch in hospital nomenclature and practice. Gene Rilla Cady, in "The Girl," who had the difficult role of the mystery patient carried it out quite true to life, even to her shrieks.

Minor parts, all of which enhanced the quality of the production were taken by Charles Seaver, Bonnie Finkbohner, Lloyd Weer, Digby Smith, Sylvia Zeff and Mabel Adams. The play is directed by Charles S. Munroe, with a setting by Frank Spencer.

"Ghosts" will be played this week-end.

MRS. ALICE BERSELL PASSES IN CARMEL

Mrs. Alice Marie Bersell, 40, passed away quietly Friday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Werner, Carmel. She had been in ill health for some time.

A native of Salida, Colorado, Mrs. Bersell came to California 20 years ago. She has been residing with her parents during the past four years.

Surviving the deceased, besides her parents, are a son and daughter, Wm. E. Pierce, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, and Betty Pierce, San Francisco.

Sascha Jacobinoff, prominent violinist who has been summering in Carmel, left recently by motor for home home in Philadelphia, where he will appear as guest artist with the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra under Leopold Stokowski on August 16th. The concert will be broadcast over a national network, which will allow his Carmel friends to hear him over the radio.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Hicks, who are vacationing in the Cachagua, have been enjoying a visit of several days from Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hilbert and son and Mrs. Nell Twilegar and her daughter.

Marion's Play to Be Repeated During Serra Pageant

"The Apostle of California," mittee.

Carmel, Mission play written by George Marion and produced last year at the Mission as the Serra Pageant, will again be presented as a tribute to the memory of the founder of the mission, beginning on the 151st anniversary of Junipero Serra's death and having six performances. The dates from August 28 to September 1.

"Marion's 'Apostles of California,' is not stilted pageantry, but a gripping dramatic play which left the audience reverently silent for a full minute after the end last year," said Frederic Burt, important member of the pageant com-

The Serra Festival and Pageant is gaining momentum daily under the direction of a committee of men who represent the community, the theater and the church. They are the Rev. Michael D. O'Connell, Harry Downie, Frederic Burt, George Marion, James L. Cockburn, Arthur Shand, William J. Crabbe, Leo McNeil and Barnet Segal.

The event is being widely publicized by radio, travel agencies and newspapers throughout the whole country. Father O'Connell solicited the attention of leaders in these fields while in San Francisco last week.

CARMEL PLANS ART PLAQUES FOR SERRA

Plans for street decorations in Carmel during the annual Serra pageant and fiesta in August are being made by the fiesta committee, Carmel Art association and the Business association.

Considerable criticism arose last year over the gaudy bunting that was put up by a commercial decorating company. This year it is indicated that historic pictorial plaques and banners will be hung on store fronts with appropriate colors framing them.

Harold Nielsen, president of the business association, is nominally in charge of the joint meetings of the civic groups. He stated today that no definite designs had been selected, but that at another meeting in the near future Carmel artists will have the deciding voice in the matter.

Langston Hughes left Carmel recently for Santa Fe, where he will spend a short time before leaving in September for Europe. Mr. Hughes, who has recently been awarded a Guggenheim fellowship, plans to settle down in a small town in France to devote his time entirely to writing.

"POST ROAD" A MODERN THRILLER

The Pinon Players scored a decided hit in "Post Road," an ultra modern mystery play given at the Carmel Playhouse four nights ending Sunday.

It was the story of a modern kidnapping, replete with thrills and all the time keeping the audience guessing how it was going to end. The villainy was subtle, and in pleasing contrast to the usual blood and thunder, while a steady barrage of witticisms kept the house in a hilarious mood most of the time.

Franklin Wilbur, acting the part of a gangster disguised as a pious parson, was exceptionally clever; Beatrice Newport, in the role of Emily Madison, brought out the contempt for conventionalities of the modern bachelor girl to perfection, at the same time disproving the theory that sophistication kills the mother instinct. John Straub, as George Preble, the "man what that may do to our institutions.

Recent decisions of the Supreme Court in the NRA and other cases have, it is to be hoped, helped to focus a measure of public attention on the issue of freedom versus political dictatorship. If America is to be maintained as a free democracy, the home of free men, every citizen must do his part to keep it so. He must realize that there can be no temporizing with those who would change our system of government—even as there can be no compromise between individualism and socialism, communism or fascism.

Midget Cars to Race

By JOHN W. RICE

SAN JOSE, Calif.—(GGPS). — Something entirely different from the races held last year is promised by Truman Letcher, local sportsman, when he reopens the Alviso Speedway Friday night, July 26, with 25 or more midget racing cars entered in 10 events.

Held on a handicap basis, each car will have a ranking of its own which automatically gives it its place in each event, depending upon the length and the caliber of the cars entered.

The stands and track have been adjusted, and a number of cars have already had several evenings' practice under the lights.

Motor troubles which have caused delay and marred races in the past have been eliminated with new style motor, and the perform-

California Farm Power Rates lowest in Nation

AGRICULTURE AIDED BY ELECTRICITY CHEAP IN COST—AVAILABLE EVERYWHERE

THE PROOF—U. S. Census of Electrical Industries:

	Per kwh
1 California average rate for farm power . . .	1.5 cents
National average rate for farm power . . .	2.8 cents
(Figures based on revenue from consumers)

2 Apply the same test to any state:

California	1.5 cents per kwh
New Hampshire	7.2 " " "
New York	6.4 " " "
Illinois	7.0 " " "
Michigan	2.5 " " "
Missouri	6.5 " " "
Kansas	5.7 " " "
Georgia	6.1 " " "

Other states show the same great differences; some report higher average rates than those here quoted; none lower than California.

2 California farms use 63 per cent of all agricultural power consumed in the United States but pay less than 33 per cent of the total national bill for farm service.

THE REASON . . . electricity is cheaper in California.

Sixty per cent of all farms in this state use electricity, more than in any other state. Electric power has brought efficiency, increased production, larger money returns to agriculture. It has freed the farmer from drudgery and in his home has given him all the comforts and conveniences offered by modern electrical appliances.

SCOUTS TO TRAIN FOR NATIONAL JAMBOREE

Monterey bay area will have a representation of 66 Boy Scouts at the national jamboree in Washington next month. Twelve of them will be from the peninsula.

Three days' preliminary training will be held at Camp McQuaide for the boys from Santa Cruz, Monterey and San Benito counties. They will be at the camp August 9, 10 and 11 for drill in marching, packing and in camp life as they will find it during their stay in Washington.

The party starts for the national capital on August 13. And together with Scouts from all over the world they will mobilize for the great jamboree on August 21. All delegates will be housed in tent cities on the banks of the Potomac, necessitating rigid discipline.

Local Scouts will be under the leadership of E. O. Walker, assistant Scoutmaster of Troop 92, Pacific Grove.

Those who will make the trip to Washington are John de Lorimier, Pacific Grove; Frank Girard, Seaside; Warren Earl, New Monterey; Herbert Cohen, Legion troop; and Jack Paul, Pacific Grove.

Sea Scouts are Harry MacDonald, Pacific Grove; Robert Rand, Sumpster E. Derrance, Freer Gottfried, Bernard V. McMenamin and Donald D. Perkin, all of Carmel.

When you have a job of printing please remember The Sun. Our work is pleasing and prices low.

COURTHOUSE BONDS WILL BE DISCUSSED

A meeting to discuss the forthcoming bond election for the proposed new county courthouse will be held this Tuesday evening, July 30, at 7:30, in the Carmel valley hall.

County Supervisor Andy Jacobsen has been invited to speak at the meeting to explain the need for such a structure and urge voters to get behind the movement. The bond election will be held August 5.

Carmel Martin, chairman of the group, is to preside and will add his own views on the subject to those of the supervisor.

Mrs. Maude Lewis Dies Suddenly

A heart attack caused the immediate death of Mrs. Maude E. Lewis, 64, Sunday morning, at home in Carmel. She was the widow of Enoch Lewis and had lived on the peninsula 22 years, and was born in San Francisco. Funeral services were held this morning in Monterey, followed cremation of the body.

"The Lord hath appeared of old unto me, saying, Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love: therefore with lovingkindness have I drawn thee." These words from Jeremiah comprise the Golden Text to be used Sunday, August 4, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be "Love." Included among the Scriptural selections will be: "Bless the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name . . . Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies; . . . Justice and judgment are the habitation of thy throne: mercy and truth shall go before thy face. Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound: they shall walk, O Lord, in the light of thy countenance" (Ps. 103: 1, 4; 89: 14, 15).

The following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included: "Love inspires, illumines, designates, and leads the way. Right motives give pinions to thought, and strength and freedom to speech and action. . . Divine Love is infinite. Therefore all that really exists is in and of God, and manifests His love" (pp. 454, 340).
